The high school May fete was given Saturday afternoon in Central park. Nine hundred girls, dressed in white dresses with yellow and black sashes, took part in the grand march. After the march, which formed in the east part of the park, the queen, Miss Marguerite Thrapp, was crowned.

Miss Thrapp, who is a member of the senior class, was chosen by vote in the girls' council of the school. She was dressed in a Grecian robe and was crowned with daisies. Sixteen girls, representing the eight classes of the school, attended the queen, and she was heralded by Miss Geneva Seybold. The pageant was arranged by Miss Ethel Aldrich, who is one of the high school teachers.

Folk dances and drills, in charge of Miss Grace Elmore, the teacher of the gymnasium classes, were given in the latter part of the afternoon. The first dance was a Scotch reel and was followed by a Swedish Strassak. Another dance was "Reap the Flax," and in the Clap dance the girls carried garlands. The last event was an aesthetic dance, "San Toy," and the girls taking part were dressed in short black costumes with yellow bodices, and they carried black and yellow garlands.

After the fete an informal reception was held and punch was served. The high school people hope to make the fete an annual affair of the school year.

A specialist's ability to cure deep-seated diseases is in proportion to the years of study and experience. Chronic diseases, such as kidney trouble or vital weakness of the system and of the organs, caused by the violation of the laws of health, demand the expert services of a true specialist in such diseases. Chronic diseases are his specialty, and your experience is his best recommendation.

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. William Macferran will entertain their bridge club tonight at their home in Potwin Place, and guests besides the members will be: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Moore.

Mrs. A. Zahner was hostess at a meeting of the Monday Whist club today.

La Douzaine Bridge club met this afternoon with Mrs. J. D. Freeman at her home in Madison street. Mrs. Fred Hies played as substitute.

Mr. Randall Burrow and Mr. Glenwood Jones arrived home Saturday, after a three months' tour of Europe. They made the return trip on the Waterland, a German vessel of the Hamburg-American line, which is now the largest ship afloat. It was the boat's maiden voyage, sailing from Southampton to New York. The two travelers were on the boat when it entered the Hudson river, and the scene occurred of the tug boats moving the gigantic vessel, which the newspapers described.

Mr. Jones and Mr. Burrow made the trip a few months ahead of the rush of tourists. They reached Italy when the spring season in that country was at its best. They stopped in Venice, Rome, Naples, Florence and all the interesting cities of the country. They visited the Swiss lakes, and did some mountain climbing in the Alps, stopped at Brussels and went over the Waterloo battlefield. They were in Munich some time, took the Rhine trip, and afterward went to Paris. Later they crossed to Great Britain, had a trip through rural England, and visited London. As they went north, they followed the season, visiting the various countries in the loveliest time of the year. They visited Mr. Jones' relatives near Stratford, and they spent some time at the large universities. They also attended the opera in Munich, Milan, Paris and London. The London opera in Covent Gardens was given partly by the great singers of the Metropolitan company. Meiba was in London at the time.

They made the acquaintance of Josiah Wedgwood, a member of parliament, and through him, were admitted to the sessions though his mother-in-law was obliged to sit in the ante-chamber for fear she might have a bomb or a hatchet concealed about her wherewith to force the adoption of a suffrage bill.

News has been received in Topeka of the engagement of Miss Elsie Norwood of Chicago and Mr. Neal Anderson of Lima, O.

Miss Norwood is a niece of Mr. W. I. Miller, and made her home with the Miller family for some time. She has many friends in Topeka to be interested in the news of her approaching marriage. Mr. Anderson came to Topeka from Carthage, Mo., and did reportorial work on the Topeka Herald, which was published in this city some years ago. Later Mr. Anderson returned to Topeka as a member of the North Brothers Stock company, and while playing various roles at the Majestic theater, he published a weekly paper, in the interest of his company, "The North Star." He is now with a stock company in Lima, O., and is doing work similar to that of the position he held in Topeka.

The date of the wedding has not been set.

A meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Episcopal churches of Kansas will be held in Lawrence Tuesday, providing a meeting of the convention, which convenes Wednesday and Thursday.
